Brief Appraisal of the overall performance of the institution during the academic session 2013–2014

MICRO SKILLS. It is a known fact that to accomplish any task successfully, we must always begin with the smallest detail pertaining to that task. Thus, in order to become effective teachers, the students were exposed to the intricacies of teaching–learning process in the form of Micro Skills in the very first week of college. The teacher educators gave demonstrations on various skills like Set Induction, Questioning, Explanation, Blackboard Work, Illustrating with Examples, Reinforcement and Closure followed by group work for preparing lesson plans.

WORKSHOP ON OBJECTIVES AND SPECIFICATIONS. Objectives and Specifications are very important for the teachers, as they help to define their expectations from the students as well as evaluate the achievement of set objectives. This workshop was conducted by Mrs. Devanshi Praveen and Mrs. Geeta R Thakur, after dividing the class into two groups, so that better explanation and comprehension could be achieved, and doubts could be clarified.

WORKSHOP ON CORE ELEMENT AND VALUES. Values are extremely essential for the complete development of a growing mind. A teacher has an excellent opportunity, to impart and instill these values in the minds of children, as they spend most part of their day in the school. So, keeping this in focus, a workshop on Core Elements and Values was conducted by Mrs. Namrata Saxena on 14th August, 2013. The students were explained how we can put across these values to the children, no matter, what methods were used for teaching.

WORKSHOP ON INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIAL PREPARATION. Teaching is an art and hence just reading the textbook and explaining is not the right way to impart education. Teaching has to be done in such a manner, that the child's attention and interest, and curiosity, are piqued and sustained. For this purpose, a teacher has to use certain teaching aids. On 24th August, 2013, Mrs. Geeta R Thakur demonstrated various techniques of making and using teaching aids. The most important aspect was, that all the materials used were economical, easily available and easy to make as well.

MACRO LESSONS. Macro Lessons– in other words Practice Teaching was handled by Mrs. Devanshi Praveen. When the students were thorough with the Micro Lessons and Integrated Lessons, Macro Lessons were introduced to them. These lessons brought out the actual scenario of a school system. Mrs. Devanshi Praveen made sure that everyone got equal opportunity to complete 20 lessons. Lot of hard work, thought and time went into the process of making the time table. Some of the schools that were assigned to the students were, MES School and Junior College, CKT School and Junior College, KES School.

SELECTION OF A STUDENT COUNCIL: India is a Democratic nation; hence threading the path of democracy, the council members were elected. These student teacher representatives acted as a cordial bridge between the student teachers and the faculty. Many volunteers came forward for the post of General Secretary and the Council Members. The election for the post of council members took place on 31st August; 2013. It was conducted in a Democratic manner wherein every candidate had an equal opportunity to campaign and appeal for votes. All the students eagerly participated in the voting process, and voted for their favourite candidates. Mrs. Smitha Kurup was elected as the General Secretary and the five elected Council Members were, Mrs. Zainab Lokhandwala (Academics), Mrs. Kamna Lote (Discipline and Hygiene), Miss. Shaily Shah (Extended Activities), Miss. Shabnoor M (Cultural Activities) and Mrs. Smitha M (Sports Activities). It was a very humbling moment for me as I was for this Academic Year.

The students in charge for our Annual Magazine “SPARK” were Mrs. Ichha Mehrotra and Mrs. Sudha K. for the English section and Mrs. Shweta Singh for the Hindi section.

5th SEPTEMBER – TEACHERS’ DAY: The members of the student council were given the responsibility to conduct the B. Ed session for this day. It was the first time that a B. Ed. class was entrusted with this kind of responsibility, that too in the absence of the teacher educators. The student council put in their efforts and successfully carried out the activities with the total co-operation from all the student teachers, who were present. The day began with an Assembly Session conducted by Mrs. Kamna Lote and Miss. Shaily Shah, followed by a group discussion on the first Essay Test. There was a session on Acupressure given by Mrs. Kamna Lote, which was very informative and interesting, followed by lunch break. After the break, time was allotted for dance practice for the Teachers’ Day Celebration which was to take place on September 7th.

TEACHERS’ DAY CELEBRATION: Time constraints, lesson plans, simulated lessons and essay tests, all these did not deter the students from putting up an excellent cultural extravaganza for the teacher educators. We celebrated the Teachers’ Day on 7th September, 2013 with lots of fun and frolic. All the participants looked absolutely stunning in their attires. Students’ participation was maximum and the efforts were applauded greatly by all the teachers. The event was successfully managed under the able guidance of the cultural teacher in-charge Mrs. Chitra More and student council member Miss. Shabnoor Masum.

SIMULATED TEACHING: Today’s students are global students; their attention cannot always be sustained by using regular teaching methods. The teachers need to give them something more, make them think more actively and also allow them to participate in the teaching learning process. This can be achieved by the simulated lessons like Information Transfer, Creative Lesson, Concept Attainment Model (CAM), Power Point Presentations, and Inquiry Training Model (ITM).

The students were given demonstrations on each technique in the respective methods. The students were encouraged to use these simulations in their practice teaching, so that they could create interest among the students and sustain it as well.

HINDI DIVAS CELEBRATION. Hindi Divas was celebrated on 14th September, 2013. The Hindi speaking student teachers under the guidance of Ms. Pradnya Jadhav took the initiative to make this day memorable. Within a days' time, they were ready with a set of activities like poems by literary scholars, comic play and a song. They all looked beautiful in their attires.

SEMINAR ON CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE. National Award winning writer and Social Campaigner Mrs. Pinki Virani is among India's bestselling authors whose single-handed work, gives voice to individuals who have none. The student teachers gained first hand information on Child Sexual Abuse from Pinki Virani on 14th September, 2013. She discussed the tell tale signs of identifying the problem and the precautions that needs to be taken. Ms. Virani pointed out that one in every four girls under the age of sixteen, and an equal number of boys are sexually harassed, and the most shocking truth - half the cases reveal that a close family member is the culprit. Teachers being closest to the children really need to keep their eyes and ears open.

OPEN BOOK ASSIGNMENT. As the name suggests Open book assignment is a concept wherein a topic is provided, and the students have to search through different books, internet etc. and gather information. The students learn to be aware of what information to use, and what not to use, and write an essay type answer to the question given on the topic. It does sound easy but it is tricky, because to concise and use only that information that is apt and needed, is more difficult and confusing. This assignment taught the student teacher to think and do self study, to use their mental capabilities in understanding the relevant matter, and writing it in the correct format.

SPORTS ACTIVITIES. All work and no play make Jack and Jill a dull boy and girl! Keeping this in mind, sports activities were organized in the month of October and continued till January. As and when possible, we utilized the time to play games like dodge ball, badminton, table tennis, caroms. It goes without saying that the activity was filled with fun and healthy competition. All thanks to the sports in charge Mrs. Smitha M, who made sure that everyone, participated in one game or the other.

NAVRATRI CELEBRATION. On 12th October, 2013, B. Ed students along with the M. Ed. students decided to celebrate Navratri festival. All the students and teachers were dressed in their finery and looked amazing. All danced to their hearts' content. Be it garba or dandiya, the students thoroughly enjoyed dancing. The icing on the cake was, when the students were awarded prizes for their performances.

COMMUNITY SERVICE. "Love cannot remain by itself – it has no meaning. Love has to be put into action and that action is service". On 22nd and 23rd November, 2013 under the guidance of Mrs. Bindu Tambe, the students went to Shantivan Ashram in Nere as a part of community service programme. The students became accustomed to the various ways in which efforts can be combined towards a cause- be it dam building, cooking, cleaning the garden, road building, talking to the Senior Citizens, interacting with the people who were weaving carpets and so on. The students sat together in a big circle and shared their lunch with each other. Events like these helps in inculcating social values. Talking to senior citizens filled the hearts of the students with empathy.

The students were later divided into groups as per their special methods and asked to prepare the same. The teacher educators guided the student teachers through the entire process.

ACTION RESEARCH. Action Research is an essential part of the B.Ed. curriculum. It was introduced by Mrs. Geeta R. Thakur on 24th December, 2013. There exist many problems in the field of education pertaining to students, and if there are problems, there are solutions to it too. Action research can be done in order to find the solutions to various problems. This kind of research can equip the future teachers with the necessary knowledge, and skills to identify and solve the various problems faced by the teachers as well as the students. The student teachers were asked to identify a problem, collect information regarding, analyze and interpret the results, and suggest measures to overcome such problems. The students were divided into groups and specific teachers were assigned to each group for guidance. Action research was an independent project done by the student teachers. This activity gave them an insight as to how to conduct actual research, and reach conclusions based on it.

BOOK REVIEW. This year onwards a new concept- Book Review was introduced in the B. Ed.

syllabus. Every student was asked to select a book and review it on the basis of the content, why the book was chosen, style of writing, message conveyed, the author, significance, why one should read the book, rate the book and so on. This was a novel idea and the first book review was presented on 9th January, 2014. Every student was given 15 minutes to present in front of the class or in their tutorial groups. Each and every book that was presented, had significance; they all had some kind of message or experience or idea that could enrich one's thought process and style of living.
