

SIES College of Comprehensive Education, Sion & SIES College of Comprehensive Education, Nerul

As part of the collaboration between Pillai College of Education and Research (PCER), Panvel, and SIES College of Comprehensive Education (SCCE), Sion, and SIES College of Comprehensive Education, Nerul, PCER students benefit from capacity-building workshops and sessions organized by these institutions. Participation in joint workshops and sessions provides PCER students with opportunities to network with faculty members and students from SIES College of Comprehensive Education. This networking facilitates knowledge exchange, collaborative projects, and potential mentorship opportunities, enriching the learning experience for PCER students.
